

CURIOUS BOX

Today, with the “My Forest Bag” activity and our future scientists, we explored nature.

We learned the importance of using our materials carefully and in an organized way, and we talked about how recycling can help our world.

At home, you can reinforce this awareness by sorting waste and using resources responsibly, and you can talk with your child about ways to protect nature.

Stay curious and keep exploring science!

MY FOREST BAG

