

3D GALASSES

Today at school, we did the 3D Glasses activity by putting the pieces together.

We talked about 3D technology and explored our own drawings using our 3D glasses.

You can ask the future scientists in your home:

- “Where is 3D technology used?”
- “Why do the letters look like they are moving when you look through the glasses?”

Stay curious and keep exploring with science!

