

CURIOUS BOX

Today at school, we had an amazing day with the My Farm activity! During the activity, we planted our own seeds and gave them nourishing water.

This activity will help us explore nature and witness the growth process of plants!

By making observations about the plant's life cycle, you can later transfer your grown Purslane plant into a bigger pot.

Stay curious and keep exploring with science!

MY FARMHOUSE

