

Today at school, we did the Sound Ball activity by putting the pieces together.

We explored how the distance from a sound source affects how we hear it. We also learned to group sound sources as natural or artificial.

You can try this at home too! Ask questions like, "Is it natural or artificial?" using sounds around you, and experiment with the Sound Ball activity together.

Stay curious and keep exploring with science!

SOUND BALL

