

Today, we conducted an experiment with our future scientists on how dirty water can be cleaned, and we recorded our observations.

We explored the different processes involved in water purification!
At home, you can ask them:
“What substances are found in the water that flows from our taps, and what are their functions?”

Stay curious and keep exploring science!

HOW CAN I ACCESS CLEAN WATER?

