

John Dalton

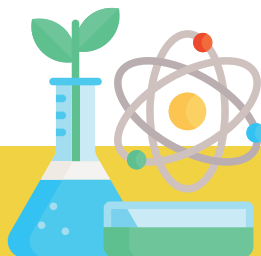

He is a scientist who studied water droplets in the air.

He explained that there is invisible water vapor in the air.

This idea helped us understand rain and clouds.

Thanks to him, we also learn how water circulates in the sky!

SCIENTIST

Information Card

