

Today at school, with the “Let’s Build a Drip Irrigation!” activity, we discovered how important it is to use our resources wisely. We built a drip irrigation system and planted our seedlings.

You can also support children in developing habits that help them build awareness of being economical and responsible with resources.

Stay curious and stay scientific!

LET'S DO DRIP IRRIGATION!

