

Today at school, we carried out the “Growing My Plant” activity.

To explore the life cycle of a plant, we took the first step and planted seeds. You can also follow the plant’s growth process together with your child at home.

Stay curious and keep exploring science!

GROWING A PLANT

