

Today at school, we carried out the Kaleidoscope activity, discovering the visual feast of shapes and colors created by the reflection of mirrors. By comparing lighting tools used in the past and today, we learned how light and colors are affected in different environments.

At home, you can explore the images with your child using a kaleidoscope and discover how this visual feast is created.

Stay curious and keep exploring with science!

KALEIDOSCOPE

