

Today at school, we carried out the Power of Electricity activity and built a flashlight.

We explored how electricity reaches our city, learned the functions of electrical circuit components, and set up a simple electric circuit.

You can ask your child: "Is there an alternative energy source that can be used instead of electricity?"

Stay curious and keep exploring with science!

THE POWER OF ELECTRICITY

