

Today at school, we carried out the “By the Power of Shadows” activity and observed how shadows are formed.

We explored the relationship between the light source, objects, and shadows. By experimenting, we learned how a shadow forms behind an object when light hits it. At home, you can ask your child:
“Why is a shadow sometimes long and sometimes short?”

Stay curious and keep exploring science!

IN THE NAME OF THE POWER OF SHADOWS

miniskop

