

Today, with our future scientists, we used the engineering design process to build a safe building. We also learned what to do during and after an earthquake.

You can ask your children:

- "What is needed for a building to be safe?"
- "What can we do to prevent or reduce earthquake damage?"

"Let's shake, but not fall!"

Stay curious and keep exploring science!

STEM EARTHQUAKE ACTIVITY

